Warriors to Tackle Arizona Frosh Next

Flying to Tucson this weekend to battle with the University of Arizona frosh are the El Camino Warriors who opened the season last Friday evening with a disastrous 53-15 defeat at the hands of Fullerton Junior College.

Coach Amby Schindler and his charges hope to show up better in Arizona than they did against Fullerton last week. The Hornets held the Warriors scoreless until the fourth quarter.

After three periods of football, Ted Mitchell flipped a 16-yard aerial to Redondo's Doug Stott for the Warriors' first tally. Mitchell followed through a few minutes later with a pass to Don Cody to set up the second TD. Bob Dill blocked a punt in the end zone for a safety to make the final score 53-15.

Friday's blitzing by the Fullerton Hornets was the worst defeat Schindler and his Warriors have ever suffered in the school's five-year history.

Sanitary Sewers Sought

Petitions calling for the installation of sanitary sewers in the Hammetton Tract, area are now being circulated in the hopes of signing up the owners of at least 60 per cent of the area involved.

Bay League Powerhouses Fracture Foes in Season's Opening Games

The past weekend of football debuts by Bay League teams spelled out only one thing to Cliff Graybehl and Vern Wolfe, coaches of the 1951 Tartar grid machines: T-R-O-U-B-L-E.

Ingewood unloaded a powerhouse on the field last Friday and racked up Long Beach Poly 49-7 to start their season. Santa Monica took the wraps off a fast team long enough to clobber Alhambra 26-0.

Redondo showed it knew something of the game when it trounced Long Beach Wilson 26-0. Beverly Hills entertained Saint Monica for the evening by harding them at 23-7 defeat. Leuzinger was the only league team to stumble. They dropped their encounter to John Bur-

Dandoy Shines In Grid Debut For Spartans

Aramis Dandoy, who made his debut in an SC uniform last Saturday, lived up to his expectations by leading the SC Spartans, the Trojan Jayvee team, to a 35-13 win over the visiting El Toro Marines in the L. A. Coliseum.

Playing his first college game, Dandoy raced over for the Spartans' first TD early in the game. He followed through in the second half with a 43-yard run to pay dirt, which was called back, and a 75-yard run to the end zone from a pass play, which was also called back.

Not to be denied, Dandoy rambled 47 yards later in the period and this one counted, making it his fourth T.D. of the day and the second good one.

Bees Kick Off Season Today At 2:30 Here

It falls to the lot of Coach Don Porter and his Bee footballers to open the 1951 grid season in Torrance. The lightweights will entertain the Glendale Hoover Bees here this afternoon at 2:30 on the Torrance gridiron.

It will be the first game for many of the boys given Bee suits this week. Some veterans will be returning, but in the main, the huge squad is new.

It will be the shakedown cruise also for the two coaches, Porter and his assistant, Dick Leech. Both are coaching for the first time at Torrance High. They were hired here this year as high school teachers and are handling the coaching chores in addition to teaching.

Kickoff will be at 2:30; admission is free for this game.

Season Ticket Sale for Tartar Games Dropped

There will be no sale of reserved seat season tickets for Torrance High School football games this fall, Principal John Steinbaugh said yesterday.

A plan proposed by the Torrance Athletic Boosters, a break-fast table quarterback club that meets for breakfast each Tuesday morning, was turned down by Steinbaugh after it was presented to him Tuesday. He said the problems of supervising such a section outweighed any possible gain in attendance which would result.

Boys' Touch Football Leagues Being Formed Throughout City

Plans for the formation of boys' touch football leagues to play under the auspices of the recreation department and the YMCA were announced this week by Elmer Moon, the city's director of athletics, and Milt Isbell, executive secretary of the YMCA.

Play this year will be conducted under the "flag" rules of the National Federation of Interscholastic Athletics, according to Moon.

Players will wear small flags tucked in the trousers at each hip, and a tackle is made when an opposing player gets the flag, according to the rules.

Plans to form leagues to play in North Torrance, Central Torrance, and Welteria are being studied.

There will be two divisions of play. Boys who had not reached their 15th birthday last Labor Day (September 3) will be able to play in the Junior division, and boys who had not reached

Bluebirds Beat Hod Carriers For Loop Title

Claire Ausmus and his Torrance Bluebirds polished off the second half of the play in the Long Beach Summer League here Sunday afternoon with an 11-inning, 4-3 win over the San Pedro Hod Carriers to win the second round of play and become the undisputed champs of the league. The Bluebirds won the first round in a playoff earlier.

Playing almost errorless ball behind the six-hit pitching of Harry Theodosis, the Bluebirds wired together a series of four singles in the last half of the 11th inning to score rightfielder Carl Strong with the winning tally. The Bluebirds slammed out a total of 16 hits during the game.

The win ended the official league season for the Bluebirds who have been playing in the Long Beach League all summer. The team has had a good season behind the pitching of Joe Waters, Jerry Melvaine and Theodosis.

Top players of the season turned out to be such men as shortstop Lou Briganti, outfielder Vic Ordaz, first sacker Tex Roberts.

The boys were undecided after the Sunday game about their future plans. They have been invited to enter the Long Beach winter league, but would have to play all of their games in Long Beach.

Frank Carpenter, superintendent of recreation, said he had had several offers to put teams in Torrance, but that he hoped the Bluebirds decided to stick together.

Most League Teams Busy

While the Tartars are opening their 1951 grid campaign at Glendale tomorrow, the rest of the Bay League teams will be playing their second practice games of the season.

Beverly Hills will host the Mira Costa Mustangs tomorrow afternoon on the Norman field in Beverly Hills.

Redondo Beach will host the Long Beach Jordan, Ingewood will host Loyola, and on Saturday, Leuzinger will play at Redlands.

Ingewood and Leuzinger will open the League schedule next week-end when they meet at Ingewood.

Big Game Two Months Away

'Beat Torrance!' Is Cry at Narbonne Hi

Out at Narbonne High School where the Green and Gold are getting set to stage their annual football extravaganza, it's mostly the grass that's green and there seems to be a goodly share of pure gold among the 32-player varsity squad.

Already the sounds arising from the tackling dummy arena resemble "Beat Torrance!" uttered in three fast syllables plus a grunt of determination. The teams meet here Nov. 21.

Nine veterans plus a host of talented Bees will buttress the Gaucho bulwarks with lettermen available at six line and three backfield positions. The Narbonne forward wall, particularly should be much stronger than it was last season.

Top nugget in Coach Sheldon Loughborough's moleskin munc is Dapper Dan Montgomery, underrated triple-threat tailback and key cog in the Narbonne single wing. Gauchoville partisans are praying that "Old Brittlebones" stays off the casualty list.

Some of the Narbonne opponents are looking for a considerable number of "surprise" T-formation plays this year with whip-armed Wayne Covey, star Bee T quarterback last season, ready for varsity action. The Gauchos shift out of the T-in to the single wing.

Already the Torrance classic is taking on the aspects of the Number One game of the year. Last week the Narbonne student body decided what they wanted to print on their single set of rooters' buttons. "Mangle San Pedro!" their traditional league foe, barely edged out "Beat Torrance!" whom they haven't played for several seasons.

Another combination would see Marcoux in the q.b. spot, Jim Murphy at right half, Camou or Crawford at left half, and Jones or Crawford at full.

Graybehl hadn't decided yet yesterday which combination he would start tomorrow night.

The Tartar line will average about 180 pounds, while the backfield will average about 173, the coach said.

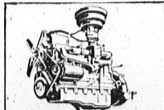

One thing is clear now — the Tartars have a good, well-balanced ball club — but their schedule is going to be tough, the Bay League is loaded!

Call Issued for Adult Touch Football Squads

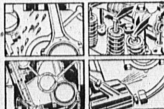

The call is out for men's touch football teams to form a league to be played at Daniels Field in San Pedro in the evenings and Sunday mornings, according to Elmer Moon, athletic director for Torrance.

The game is played with seven men on a side with the emphasis on passing and offense rather than running and defense, according to Moon.

Anyone wanting to enter a team can contact Moon at Torrance 2146 or at the recreation department office at 1347 El Prado.
